Background

A former NYPD detective, D'Esposito leaned on more than a decade of public experience to prioritize issues of inflation and public safety in his bid for New York's 4th District

Raised in Long Island, New York, D'Esposito attended Chaminade High School - a Catholic, all-boys school - before graduating from Hofstra University with a bachelor's degree in English language and literature in 2004

With more than a decade of experience in law enforcement and emergency response, D'Esposito worked as a detective with the New York Police Department (NYPD) from 2006 to 2020 and served as chief of the Island Park Fire Department from 2000 to 2016

In 2016, D'Esposito was appointed by then-Town Supervisor Anthony Santino to represent the 4th District on the Hempstead Town Board; subsequently reelected to serve two full, four-year terms in 2017 and 2021, during which he focused on Hurricane Sandy recovery efforts and COVID-19 response initiatives
