

Daniel Goldman (NY-10)

Biography

BIRTH DATE

Unknown

EDUCATION

BA, History, Yale Univ., 1994-1998

FAMILY

Married; 5 Children

Background

Rising to national prominence for his work on fmr. President Trump's first impeachment, Goldman emphasized the importance of preserving democracy in his 2022 House bid

An heir to the Levi Strauss denim company, Goldman attended the Sidwell Friends School; Goldman's father was a federal prosecutor in Washington, DC, and passed away during his childhood

Earned his undergraduate degree at Yale University and his law degree from Stanford University; while in law school he contributed to "The New Jim Crow" by Michelle Alexander, a book about the racial inequalities within the criminal justice system

Beginning in 2007, Goldman spent 10 years as an assistant US attorney for the Southern District of New York, where he prosecuted organized crime syndicates and exposed financial crimes like insider trading and corporate fraud

Following his tenure as assistant US attorney, Goldman was a news commentator for MSNBC and NBC News and a fellow at the Brennan Center for Justice, where he took an advocacy approach towards criminal justice reform

From 2019 to 2020, Goldman served as lead counsel for then-President Trump's first impeachment trial

District Profile

COOK PVI

D+35

2022 VOTE RATING DISTRICT LOCATION

Solid D

Lower Manhattan and northwestern Brooklyn

Election Results

2022 GENERAL

Goldman

84%

Hamdan

15%

SOURCE Associated Press; Vignette, by National Journal

AP DATA AS OF December 7, 2022 10:42 AM